

A pixel art illustration of a calendar page. The top half has a red background with the month 'JUL' in white, stylized, blocky letters. To the right of the month is a 2x3 grid of six small, light pink squares. The bottom half has a light blue background with the number '17' in large, dark grey, blocky digits. Two vertical grey bars are positioned at the top, representing the calendar's binding or rings. The entire icon is framed by a thick black border.
